About Wiggley Accounting Group, New Orleans Tax Accounting Firm

We are a full-service accounting firm licensed in Louisiana. We offer a broad range of services for business owners, executives, and independent professionals across a number of different industries--technology, food and drink, entertainment, you name it.

Why do top-tier tax accountants join our firm?

The professionals at Wiggley joined our team because we are a firm driven by values and integrity. Our values inform how we serve our clients and our team, and we believe in providing our employees with everything they need to grow their careers and obtain true work/life balance.

"I learn something new every day at Wiggley. I work hard, but I get to have a family life too. Wiggley lets me work from home when I need to and is very flexible about working around my kids' schedules. I've never missed a soccer game in 10 years." - Gail Peterson, Senior Tax Accountant

Stability in tax accounting

Several recent hires joined us because of the stability of our firm, our clients, and our team. If you want stability in your career and a place where you can grow personally and professionally without turmoil, drop your resume so we can have an introductory call.

"In just three years, Wiggley helped me grow from accountant to manager. The firm has a solid balance sheet and a long list of loyal clients, so I never have to worry about the economy impacting my job." - Ralph Stevens, Executive Tax Manager

We'll never burn you out, even during tax season

We offer a 36-hour workweek, and we're closed Friday afternoons between May and August. During tax season, we cap your weekly work at 55 hours. Managers don't go home early during busy season--the work is evenly distributed and everyone does his or her part.

"Like at any tax firm, tax season is crazy. But Wiggley does a great job of minimizing the insanity and makes up for it with reduced hours the rest of the year." - Jeff Robertson, Senior Tax Accountant
